in the creation of god jacob hartmann presents a profound investigation into the evolution of religious consciousness and the conception of divinity rather than a theological discourse the book is an anthropological and philosophical exploration that weaves historical analysis with contemplative insight employing a particularly eloquent and convincing literary style hartmann challenges the reader with meticulous research and narrative depth the work is grounded in the rich traditions of religious scholarship engaging critically with significant thought from a pantheon of philosophical minds thus situating itself securely within the broader literary context of metaphysical and existential inquiries into the nature of the divine and its role in human society as a thinker jacob hartmann is known for his incisive intellect and his ability to intertwine academic rigor with cultural history the impetus behind the creation of god likely stems from hartmann s lifelong fascination with the nexus of culture religion and consciousness his work reflects a deep seated drive to understand how mankind s perception of a higher power is constructed and the influence this holds over our collective cultural and ethical frameworks his scholarship is both reflection and critique of the enduring human quest to understand the unknown forces that shape our world this reissue from digicat publishing meticulously reproduced for modern readers will undoubtedly captivate those intrigued by the study of religion and spirituality recommended for scholars students of the humanities and intellectually curious minds the creation of god offers a rich exploration of mankind s quest to understand and articulate the numinous with hartmann s masterful assembly of ideas and historical contexts the book stands not only as a significant cultural document but as an enduring contribution to the discourse on the origins and impact of religious thought for more than four decades bruno bettelheim was regarded by a large public as one of the world s most important and influential psychotherapists a viennese intellectual who stood as one of freud s few genuine heirs of our time in fact as richard pollak documents in this revelatory new biography bettelheim was a lumber dealer who grandly reinvented himself with a faked set of academic credentials after emigrating to the united states in 1939 in the years that followed deception followed deception as bettelheim claimed that he had traveled in freud s circle had treated autistic children in vienna had interviewed 1 500 fellow prisoners for his famous psychological study of concentration camp behavior and had been freed from buchenwald through the intervention of eleanor roosevelt in love is not enough truants from life and the empty fortress bettelheim s much praised books about the orthogenic school the home for emotionally disturbed children at the university of chicago that he ran for three decades he continued his fabrications maintaining that he had treated hundreds of schizophrenic children who feared for their lives at the hands of their parents shaping pseudonymous case histories to enhance his reputation and claiming with concocted statistics that he was returning 85 percent of his young patients to normal lives pollak also demonstrates in frightening detail how dr b as he was called at the orthogenic school often spun angrily out of control and abused the children both physically and emotionally all the while insisting in his books and from the lectern that such punishment was absolutely verboten pollak also carefully spells out how bettelheim plagiarized portions of his prize winning book on the psychological meaning of fairy tales the uses of enchantment in a work of prodigious research pollak reveals the real bruno bettelheim for the first time giving us a portrait at once tough minded and sympathetic of a man who for all his success could never stop dissembling and re creating himself book jacket title summary field provided by blackwell north america inc all rights reserved the beginning of genesis represents the basic foundation of the entire bible if the reader does not understand the foundational truths then he will likely misunderstand the rest of the book the truths that follow stand or fall upon the foundation of the first few chapters of genesis this book is a personal passion of my heart from a conservative viewpoint of god s creation of the world things did not just come into existence by some cosmic accident or chance but by an ingenious designer creator that purposed every facet of his perfect creation many individuals have been deceived with the teachings and the lies of evolution such as man arriving from a monkey some teachers have used these lies that the earth is billions of years old however the bible clearly teaches that creation came to pass just over 6 000 years ago those years are well documented in genesis and other bible accounts since my first degree was in science it is my desire to show every person possible that the bible is absolutely true and completely trustworthy the truth is that science is attempting to catch up with biblical truth yet it never will that is because the creator of this vast universe is so far advanced of all scientific discoveries that man will never be able to reach that super human level of wisdom god possesses unlimited understanding of creation that man will never achieve in the beginning every single thing made was perfect until man committed sin in g desire is to inspire all who are seeking to uncover the truth about creation to study those conservative teachings about life and how human beings arrived on earth there is absolutely no scientific evidence of any humans living on any of the other planets god announced early in genesis that his focus was upon the heavens and the earth which is taught throughout the bible he never mentions about man getting to another planet but he does desire that all humans go to heaven the provision for man to go to heaven is through the blood of jesus since this is the only way a master dramatist s humorous retelling of the biblical creation story as a parable for our time breathing new life into timeless biblical tales arthur miller charmingly reimagines the book of genesis from the temptation of adam and eve to the fraternal tragedy of cain and abel in the beginning god generally satisfied with his creation is nonetheless perplexed by adam and eve why won t they multiply it takes wily lucifer to interest them in anything more than playing handball in the garden of eden but their new knowledge comes at a price the first family is exiled from paradise just as lucifer is banned from heaven and a fallen morally ambiguous state becomes the destiny of humankind though the creation of the world and other business was arthur miller s first broadway comedy it is full of the searching insight and sparkling dialogue that distinguish his best dramas in the first four days physicist delmar dobberpuhl masterfully explains the scientific side of how god created the universe and rapidly matured it from days 1 through 4 of the creation week instead of beginning with science and attempting to mold scripture to fit it dobberpuhl starts his analysis with god s word and describes the scientific processes that were involved in each step of the creation and maturation of a perfect habitat for mankind according to webster s new collegiate dictionary science is knowledge covering general truths or the operation of general laws especially as obtained and tested through scientific method as the author explains the truths scientists have discovered about this world must be complementary and not contradictory to god s word the creation has been a topic of debate for centuries by the very beneficiaries of that creation mankind there are two main schools of thought the universe was created in one big bang and through the process of evolution all life was created including human life the universe was created by elohim god with humans as the primary beneficiaries created in the image and likeness of their creator this book cover the creation of the heaven and the earth using scripture to support that the creation was done in god s time to sustain life that the heaven and earth was created with purpose and mankind is the beneficiary of the creation it explains the biblical creation day by day emphasizing the creation of the universe was more than just chance it was a revelation of elohim s foresight prescience to create beings that would one day become children of god
